Major Activities Organized by QCPTA in 2018-19

To promote and develop a healthy lifestyle, family bonding, as well as strong connection between the school and the parents, the QCPTA has organized a series of events and activities. Below are the highlights.

Blood Donation Day

A group of 41 parents participated in the blood donation day on 21 November 2018. It was the highest number we have ever recorded. Together we contributed to the mission of saving lives, as well as to our community's wellbeing.

Parent Volunteers Appointment Ceremony and Kick-off Party

We successfully recruited 208 parent volunteers for school year 2018-19. 120 parents and teachers attended the ceremony on 18 December 2018. The Appointment Ceremony was kick-offed by our Chairperson, Mr. Yiu Kwok Hung Kenneth, and all participants took photos with all our committee members. Valuable opinions and comments were collected from parent volunteers during group discussions and were implemented in later activities.

Parents Talk about Overseas Study

For our students who consider studying abroad, the QCPTA co-organized a “Parents Talk About Overseas Study” with the Career and Life Planning (CLP) Team of the School on 15 December 2018 which includes universities information of the United Kingdom, the United States of America and Australia. 79 participants attended this event.

Hiking BBQ Fun Day

To enjoy a break before entering the 2nd term, the QCPTA organized a “Hiking BBQ Fun Day” on 19 January 2019 to bring the Queen’s College community together to meet, exercise, mingle and have fun. 148 participants joined the event. Starting from Siu Sai Wan, they walked along the Leaping Dragon Walk and the Pottinger Peak Country Trail to the Pottinger Peak. After they climbed over the mountainous landscape, they headed downhill and paid a visit to the Ancient Rock Carving before ending their hike in the Big Wave Bay. While there, they took the tour bus from the Big Wave Bay to the Shek O beach and enjoyed BBQ buffet at the Nam Au BBQ Store located at the beach. It was a wonderful and relaxing day.

Information Day for S3 Parents and Students

For our students and their parents who want to know more about the senior secondary curriculum and subject choices, the QCPTA co-organized the “Information Day for S3 Parents and Students” with the CLP Team of the School on 16 March 2019. Apart from the sharing of student representatives of CLP, Mrs. Cherry Tse, Permanent Secretary for Home Affairs of the Government of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region as a guest to give us a presentation in the event. About 180 parents and students attended the talk.

Open Days

On 29 and 30 March 2019, 140 QCPTA parent volunteers assisted in the School Open Days. Tailor-made souvenirs were sold at the QCPTA booths. A workshop on handmade leather and a coffee corner were also held. They were very successful and popular. All proceeds after costs have gone to sponsorships on student extra-curricular activities, including Christmas parties, overseas competitions and the QCPTA Scholarship for outstanding conduct and academic achievements.

Healthy Internet Usage Parents Talk

For our parents who want to know more about healthy Internet usage, the QCPTA organized a “Healthy Internet Usage” Parents Talk on 26 April 2019. In the event, Mr. Tang Chu Yu Joe, Centre-in-charge of Online New Page-Online Addition Counselling Centre, Hong Kong Christian Service gave a presentation. 136 parents and students participated the event.

QCPTA 30th Anniversary Dinner and School History Museum Artefact Exhibition

To celebrate the 30th anniversary of the QCPTA, the “QCPTA 30th Anniversary Dinner and School History Museum Artefact Exhibition” organized on 4 May 2019. The School History Museum opened at the occasion, allowing access to Queen’s College artefacts of considerable historical value and valuable documents drafted in the early years of the QCPTA. At the same time, a tea gathering was held in the school hall for parents and teachers to mingle.

The anniversary dinner was held at Royal Legend seafood restaurant. Over 300 teachers, parents and students were participated the dinner to share the joy. Speeches were given by ex-chairpersons and the current chairperson of the QCPTA to celebrate the occasion. A video especially for the QCPTA 30th anniversary was recorded and presented in the dinner including the sharing from the former principals and assistant principal, the former QCPTA chairpersons, the current principal and QCPTA chairperson. A game and a lucky draw were arranged to entertain the guests in the dinner. A series of wonderful performances brought about by student representatives and the executive committee of the QCPTA wrapped up the joyful evening.

江紹忠校長
曾任前校長(任期:1987-1994)
皇后書院家長教師會創會會長

Donation for Publication of The Yellow Dragon 2019 Issue

To continue supporting the publication of “The Yellow Dragon”, a total of HK$43,790 (31/8/2019) was raised for The Yellow Dragon Editorial Board this year.

Newsletters and Website

A newsletter was published in March 2019 and the new issue will be published in October 2019. The newsletters designed by the Editorial Board were posted on the QCPTA website. To facilitate environmental protection, QCPTA will provide only electronic copy newsletters starting from the October 2018 issue.

Appreciation Party for QCPTA Parent Volunteers

An “Appreciation Party for QCPTA Parent Volunteers” was held on 22 June 2019 with 77 participants attended. The executive committee of QCPTA and parent volunteers gathered together to review and share the joy of the events and activities organized over the year. Parent volunteers provided a lot of positive and constructive feedbacks for QCPTA to excel further. To appreciate the contributions and efforts made by the parent volunteers, QCPTA prepared electronic copy of Certificates of Appreciation and sent to 203 parent volunteers.

Annual Outing

During the weekend of 30 June and 1 July 2019, the QCPTA organized a cross-border outing to Zhongshan and Zhuhai via the Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge. 89 participants including teachers, students and parents joined the outing. The event not only provide opportunities for teachers and parents to communicate with each other, but also promote parent-child interaction.

Second-hand Book Sale & Uniform Donation

Furthermore, the “Second-hand Book Sale & Uniform Donation” event was organized on 13 July 2019 at the School Hall. All students were invited to sell their books and some uniforms were donated for the students. It not only helps parents and students to save costs, but also promotes environmental protection and sharing among schoolmates.

Other Activities

QCPTA also worked close with the school to provide different parenting talks and sharing sessions including JUPAS Talks for secondary five students, as well as sharing on the “Interview for Secondary One Discretionary Places 2019”. We could not have had such a success without the tremendous support from the school and our fellow members.
